All fields in this document are mandatory, and must be filled in for a submitted application to be considered; please put "N/A" for any question which you do not have an answer for. 1. Would you please state your full name?

2. What is the preferred email address for contacting you?

3. Do you participate in any Legend of the Five Rings related forums? If so, please list those that apply and your handle on the respective forums.

4. What timezone/region are you located in? Winter Court 5 plans to have players from all around the world, so coordinating time zones will be very important.

5. How much time and during what times of the day will you be able to devote to Winter Court activities each day? Please keep in mind that we anticipate Winter Court 5 to run from roughly early January to early March of 2017, with some time in December of 2016 for players to build their homebrew characters and prepare for player character connections.

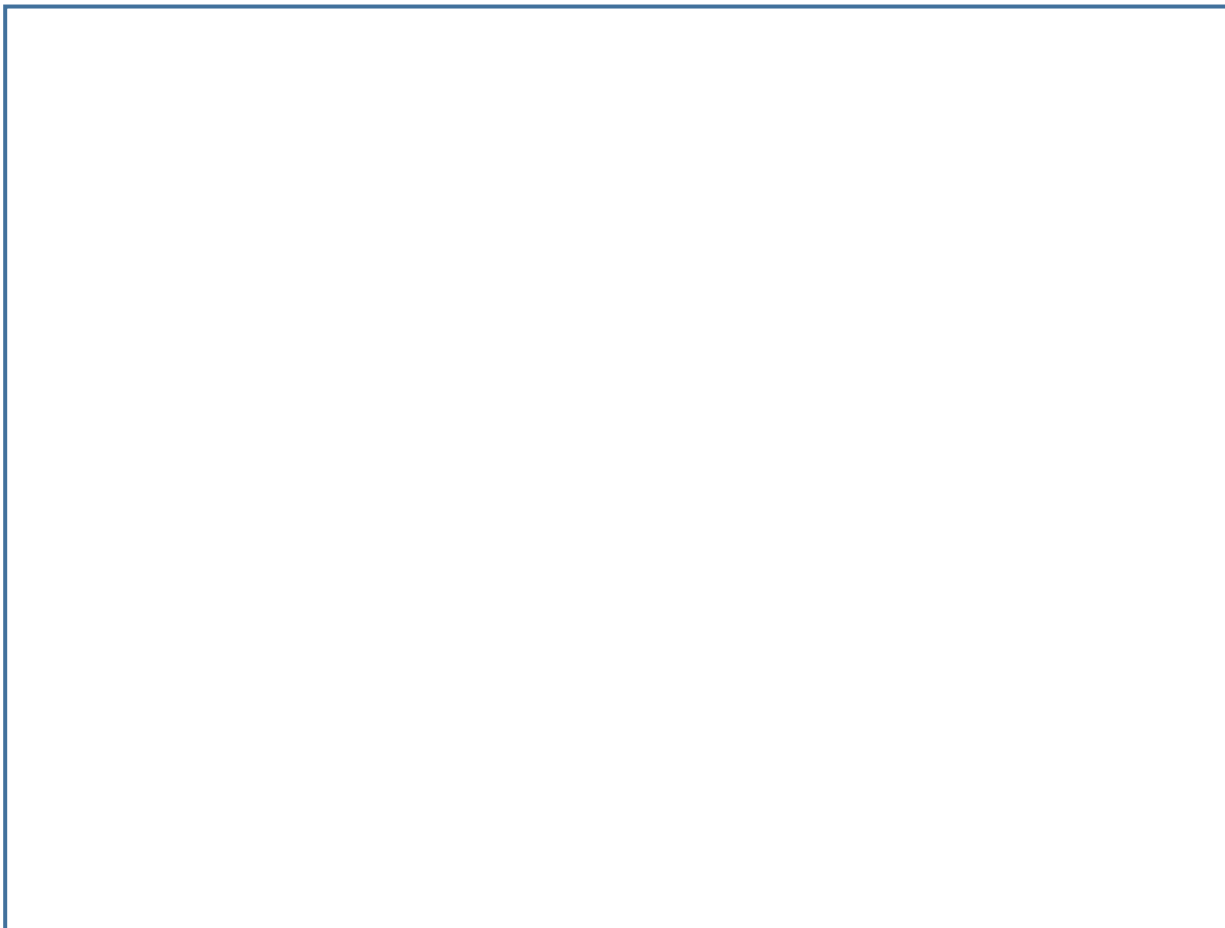

6. Have you participated in any prior Winter Court play-by-post events? If so, which events and what was your level of involvement?

7. Have you GMed any Legend of the Five Rings RPGs (tabletop or play-by-post) yourself? If so, give us a brief description of your level of experience.

8. Have you participated in any online tabletop games (L5R or otherwise) before? If so, can you briefly describe your experience?

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin blue border, intended for the user to write their answer to the question above. The box is currently blank.

11. How well do you know the Legend of the Five Rings lore?

12. You are playing the role of the Daimyo of Bayushi Bob, a player character. Bob has written a very angry request to challenge Mirumoto Jay to a duel to the death. You judge that the reasons he gives are inadequate to warrant such a duel and the delegation cannot afford to lose him as he is heavily involved in trade negotiations with another Clan. How do you as the Daimyo respond in-character to Bob's request?

13. A player sends you a private message complaining that another is targeting their character unfairly. What steps do you take in investigating this request? How would these steps change if the accused were a GM rather than a player?

14. A player sends you a private message complaining that another player seems to possess knowledge that he should not have. What steps do you take in investigating?
